"Music from the Court of Henry VIII"

Friday 29th August 2025 at 7.30pm

The early music trio Hexachordia (www.hexachordia.com) will perform a concert entitled "Music from the Court of Henry VIII", exploring the cultural world of the most famous king in British history. Singing and playing on instruments of the time, including the harp, lute, viol and recorder, the group will explore Henry VIII's reign, taking in his diplomatic triumphs such as the Field of the Cloth of Gold, as well as his loves, in the form of his many wives and his pastimes.

With complimentary Ale/Wine and Medieval Recipe Cakes!

Tickets are £8.50 and must be purchased in advance so that we can cater sufficiently. Tickets from the Church after Sunday Services or please telephone 01406 364487 or message via Tydd St Mary Church's Facebook page.
